

JANE AUSTEN'S HOUSE GROUP VISIT POLICY 2022

Visit Jane Austen's House in the Hampshire village of Chawton and discover the world's best loved novelist. It was in this picturesque cottage that Jane Austen's genius flourished and where she wrote, revised, and had published all her novels, including the timeless Pride and Prejudice.

Groups can freely explore the home and garden that Jane knew and loved, uncovering the story of her life and times, and getting up-close to objects from our unparalleled Austen collection, including Jane's writings, jewellery, and the little table at which she wrote.

Each group is welcomed by a staff member and given a brief introduction to this beautiful Hampshire cottage.

We look forward to welcoming groups to Jane Austen's House and sharing her life and work with you.

ACCESS & FACILITIES:

Jane Austen's House is an historic property with low doorways and uneven surfaces underfoot. The ground floor and outbuildings are fully accessible and we have an accessible WC with baby changing facilities. Unfortunately, the upstairs of the main house is currently only accessible by climbing an historic wooden staircase although the upstairs can now be viewed virtually via the 360° virtual tour on our website. Assistance dogs are welcome throughout the House.

The Museum does not have any catering facilities on site. For refreshments in the village there are two options: Cassandra's Cup and The Greyfriar Pub (both directly opposite the House). Advance booking is required for groups wishing to visit these venues - please see their websites for details.
